Due to a technical issue, our Casework Portal has been using an out of date security certificate since 27 August 2022. PEDW recognizes that this may be problematic, as it may have stopped some users accessing the site during this time.

I can confirm this issue has now been corrected, and the Casework Portal is now back online and fully functional. To compensate for the time that has been lost due to this issue, the representations deadline to make comments on the above application has been extended until 19 September 2022. This deadline also applies to the Local Planning Authority for the submission of the Local Impact Report.

Correction note: There was an error in the 'Our Reference' field in our Acceptance Notice for this application. The correct reference number for this application is:
